Common Traditional Service Packages

Traditional Funeral Service, Visitation & Graveside Service $4900.00

Our most popular offering allows you to honor their memory with family and friends during a visitation at our funeral home. This is typically scheduled the day or evening before the service. Our staff will also arrange the many details of the service whether it is at our funeral home or a local church. We are also available to assist with committal services at a local cemetery. The above cost also includes our basic services, embalming, preparation of the body, use of our facilities and staff, local transportation and a personalized stationary package. These costs do not include a casket, outer burial container or cash advance items.

Graveside Service and Visitation $4550.00

This option starts with time for a visitation and viewing at our funeral home and concludes with a committal service at the cemetery. Some families will have the viewing the day or evening before the service while others elect to have the visitation and committal on the same day. Either way, our facility and staff will be available for a visitation with family and friends. We will also coordinate the burial rites with your local cemetery official. Included in the costs are our basic services, embalming, preparation of the body, use of our staff and facilities, local transportation and a personalized stationary package. These costs do not include a casket, outer burial container or cash advance items.

Graveside Service Only (No Visitation) $4200.00

For some families, a simpler approach is best. Our staff will work with your local cemetery to arrange for a committal service as well as coordinate all the service details with your clergy, musicians, military honor teams, etc. While this option does not include a public visitation, you will still be able to find comfort and support from your family and friends gathered with you at the cemetery. The costs for this package include all our basic services, embalming, preparation of the body, use of our staff at the cemetery, local transportation and a personalized stationary package. These costs do not include a casket, outer burial container or cash advance items.

Common Cremation Service Packages

Traditional Funeral Service & Visitation followed by Cremation $5350.00 at funeral home | $5650.00 out of funeral home

When choosing cremation, many of our families find comfort with this more traditional option. Family and friends would be given the chance to say "good-bye" during a viewing and visitation at our funeral home with your loved one present in a special use Linford casket. This could take place the day or evening before the funeral service. Our staff would then arrange for services at our funeral home or your local church. Once all services have concluded, your loved one would be cremated at our privately-owned crematory. The costs include our basic services, embalming, preparation of the body, use of the Linford Ceremony Casket, use of our facilities and staff, local transportation, crematory fees and a personalized stationary package. These costs do not include an urn, use of staff for graveside services or cash advance items.

Remembrance Cremation Package $5000.00

We know that many families we serve desire simplicity when paying honor to their loved one. This tribute skips the formal service and instead provides a few hours for family and friends to gather, celebrate memories and share stories at our funeral home in a more relaxed and less-structured atmosphere. Guests can pay their respects while viewing your loved one in our special use Linford casket. Many of our families play some of their favorite music in the background and share a lifetime of pictures with a Tribute Video. After the visitation, your loved one would be cremated at our privately-owned crematory. Our costs include all our basic services, embalming, preparation of the body, use of the Linford casket, use of our facilities and staff, local transportation, crematory fees, our personalized stationary package. These costs do not include an urn or any cash advance items.

Private Viewing followed by Cremation and a Memorial Service $4000.00 at funeral home | $4100.00 out of funeral home

Some families prefer to honor their loved one with a ceremony that follows the cremation process. This tribute can take place at our funeral home or your place of worship. Our staff is available to arrange the details of your ceremony and offer guidance on ways to personalize. Also included is a private viewing for immediate family members. We will reserve some time at your convenience to give you and your loved ones the peace of mind you will need. Included are all costs associated with a private viewing, cremation, use of our facilities and staff, local transportation and a customized stationary package. These costs do not include an urn or any cash advance items.

Cremation followed by a Memorial Service $3295.00 at funeral home | $3395.00 out of funeral home

Countless families select this plan for its familiarity and simple nature. Cremation takes place (with no public or private viewing) and then our staff begins coordinating the many details of a ceremony. Included are all costs associated with the cremation, use of our facilities and staff, local transportation and a stationary package. These costs do not include an urn or any cash advance items.
